

“The spacious floor plans appeal to me because there’s plenty of room for large family gatherings!”

Impressive interiors

Every one of our homes offers the convenience of single-story living with a collection of quality features normally found on more expensive homes.

Our striking, unique designs combine the best elements of comfortable, cozy layouts with floor plans that are, at the same time, efficient, practical and functional.

Single-story living

It's no secret that someone in a wheelchair or with other disabilities requires a different design in order to create a totally accessible living environment.

We provide solutions to meet the special needs of those with physical challenges. Both our communities and our homes are designed to insure that physically challenged individuals can easily visit their neighbors and be part of the community.

The best value for the money

As the Wasatch Front's premier builder of 55+ communities, we are confident that our communities and homes clearly offer the most value for the least money in our marketplace. We are committed to ensure that your new home purchase is a truly supreme value and have brought together the most qualified people to design, build and maintain your community, as well as to assist you with all aspects of your new home purchase.

Selecting the right home in a carefree and relaxing environment is an important step in life. Ask one of our representatives about our reputation for homes and communities that make our residents feel secure, comfortable and happy. Then become a resident yourself. You will love your new carefree lifestyle.

Relax, you've earned it!

It's nice to know you will make friends in your new community.
